

Cardinal Sin (2015)

By Walt Wright

This small 5 x 7 painting requires that you stand back just a little in order to get the most from the 3D effect. However, do take a moment to look closely at the details. You'll notice that I signed my name on the parchment then ran the crossing of the "t" off the page and across the table. This is to draw your attention to the other letters on the pale yellow parchment. Is there a message on the page or something ancient that has been ruined? Perhaps, but which, if not both? He that hath an eye, let him see.

I seriously considered titling this work "Enough To Make A Preacher Cuss." We all have those moments when we make a real mess of things. Some accuse the devil of tormenting them, others blaming nobody but themselves. Few that understand the fact that sometimes bad things happen for divine reasons.

"And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not." REV. 10:4 KJV

Perhaps there are times in which we should consider it best when a bad thing comes our way. In this case, best if never written.
