

Lakeside in Autumn (2018)

SUBTITLE: Time to Take the Boat In

By Walt Wright

This 20 x 16 acrylic painting is a kaleidoscope of color. The scene depicts the end of summer and the beginning of cool windy autumn weather. One last playful splash of water on the rocks draws your attention to the depth the light shining across the open water has created. A child's sailboat lies at the bottom right corner of the painting as a reminder of the splendors of summer on the lake. Such a time is a beautiful gift of life, any child would be blessed to have experienced. Autumn is a time of reflection and a time of festive color, and it gets no better than lakeside.
