

Lladro's Rooster (2019)

By Walt Wright

There are a lot of people that like chickens, especially roosters. This painting was inspired by a small porcelain figurine made in Spain by Lladro. I have long been a fan of Spanish porcelain, especially by Lladro, Nao, and Cascades.

This painting was donated to The Arts Depot of Abingdon, Virginia. Its sale helps to keep the lights on and art alive in Abingdon. Thank you for supporting the arts!
