

Visitors To The Yadkin Valley (2017)

By Walt Wright

This small 10 x 8 acrylic painting is not only humorous but colorful and detailed. It is dedicated to the great vineyards in the Yadkin Valley of North Carolina. If you love really good wine then you know that it's hard to stop at just one glass of a Yadkin Valley wine. As these little visitors can admit, good wine and good friends equal a really great time!

One of my favorites wine makers is RagApple Lassie located in Boonville, NC. Their bottle labels are really neat as well! So I gave their bottle a prominent place in this painting. Enjoy you visit to the Yadkin Valley!
